DISCUSSIONS ON THE AFTERLIFE

Thursday, May 14

2:30 PM

Cost: $2 members / $3 non-members

Our discussion leader, Terry Eisenberg, has about 50 years' worth of study and examination of the Afterlife, and our first get-together last month was very interesting.

These discussions are not religion-based, but are an objective examination of what's known on the subject of returning to the spirit realm and what it's like to be there, scenarios that have been talked about for thousands of years.

You may accept or reject, believe or disbelieve as you choose, and you are most welcome to express your beliefs. Or you may simply sit and listen, then decide privately what you believe or don't.

If you're curious, please join us!

Cookin' with Ms Dotti …

We have a Fashion Show coming up on May 9th. I am all excited about this as I hope to prepare something different for you.

As I sit here looking over the lake and seeing the green leaves bursting in bloom and the birds enjoying the peace and quiet, I've decide we need some simple dishes to get us through the Spring. For this month, please try these two new recipes that are simple but delicious.

Happy cooking!
Ms Dotti

2 cups frozen peas
1 lb. peeled and deveined cooked medium shrimp, tails removed
1 jar (15 oz.) Alfredo sauce
1/4 cup shredded Parmesan cheese

In a Dutch oven, cook pasta according to package directions, adding peas during the last 3 minutes of cooking; drain and return to pan.

Stir in shrimp and sauce; heat through over medium heat, stirring occasionally. Sprinkle with cheese.

- I'm getting into swing dancing. Not on purpose. Some parts of my body are just prone to swinging.
- People our age can still enjoy an active, passionate sex life — provided we get cable or that dish thingy.
- The good news is that, even as we get older, guys still look at our boobs. The bad news is they have to squat down first.
- I've tried to find a suitable exercise video for women ny age. But they haven't made one called, "Buns of Putty".

Do you have the great American novel inside you? Maybe not, but you do have a lifetime of memories, and now is the time to put pen to paper (or fingers to keyboard) to share with your children and grandchildren all your life experiences.

Too often we think, "Gee, someday I'll tell my kids about my first job, or my college days, my experiences in the military, that road trip across the U.S. back in 19__, etc." There's no better time than now!
