Not affiliated with any of the major groups. Just to support each other.
We'll collect our usual donations of $3 for non-members, $2 for members.

If interested, please put your name in the "Newsletter" box in the Ops Manager's office. If we get a few, we'll start one for the summer, so we can get into those polka dot bikinis, yah right! And the best day, can't please all but we'll try.

Oh, and think of a name for the group. I have a volunteer to help get it started.

Marsha Clayton is married to Gary Clayton. Ask her about their wedding story, it's cute, and it does have a happy ending.

Marsha, Marsha, Marsha, as she is often referred to (if you remember the Brady Bunch).

She has served on the Board of Directors on the North Brevard Senior Center for over 6 years, once as the Secretary, and currently serving as the 1st VP. She also teaches tap and jazz dancing at the Center. She puts in a lot of time serving on the Board, monitoring our building during rentals, an opportunity she's had a lot of times.

She also serves as secretary on the board for their home HOA and takes the time to teach an exercise class at her clubhouse. She coordinates events & gatherings of the owners. I guess you could call her a dancing party planner.

She is the treasurer for her sorority, Beta Sigma Phi. Oh, also she volunteers one day a week in the office of the Titusville Playhouse.

Marsha and her husband LOVE to karaoke, and they are really good at it.

She definitely has the energy to do it all. She is organized and focused, and when she takes on projects, they always turn out great.

I asked someone once if they new Marsha and they replied, "She is one of the sweetest ladies I know."

She is a person who makes you feel welcome and you hope she'll be your friend. So that's our Marsha, Marsha, Marsha. Make sure the next time you see her to say "Hi," because, if you do, she'll dance and sing her way into your heart.

If you would like to nominate someone you know, please put a note in the Newsletter box.)
