MESSAGE FROM OUR CENTER PRESIDENT…

First of all, I would like to recognize the following for their generous donations to the Decorations Committee: Elena Bukowski, Miriam Hardister, Mary Harvey, and Rachel Kusterer. It's generous people like you who make our activities/special functions successful. THANKS!!

The Center provides many activities for our year-round members as well as non-members. Their participation is vital in keeping our doors open so we can meet the social needs of seniors in north Brevard County. Things available to the public are books, movies and jigsaw puzzles available for sign out from our Library FREE of charge. Occasionally, the Center holds special events and fundraisers. One such event is this June 14's Flag Day fundraiser to help buy a shuffleboard table. All are encouraged to buy tickets ASAP as the time is at hand.

AND THEN IT IS WINTER...

You know time has a way of moving quickly and catching you unaware of the passing years. It seems like yesterday that I was young, just married, and embarking on my new life with my mate. Yet in a way, it seems like eons ago, and I wonder where all those years went.

I know that I lived them all. I have glimpses of how it was back then and of all my hopes and dreams. But, here it is... the winter of my life, and it catches me by surprise... How did I get here so fast? Where did the years go and where did my youth go? I remember well seeing older people through the years and thinking that those "older people" were years away from me and that winter was so far off that I could not fathom it or imagine fully what it would be like.

But, here it is...my friends are retired and getting grey... they move slower and I see an older person in myself now. Some are in better — and some worse— shape than me... but, I see the great change... Not like the ones I remember who were young and vibrant...but, like me, their age is beginning to show and we are now those older folks that we used to see and never thought we'd be.

Each day now, I find that just getting a shower is a real target for the day! And taking a nap is not a treat anymore... it's mandatory! 'Cause if I don't on my own free will... I just fall asleep where I sit!

And so... now I enter this new season of my life unprepared for all the aches and pains and the loss of strength and ability to go and do things that I wish I had done but never did! But at least I know that, though the winter has come, and I'm not sure how long it will last... when it's over on this earth... it's over. A new adventure will begin!

Yes, I have regrets. There are things I wish I hadn't done... things I should have done, but indeed, there are also many things I'm happy to have done. It's all in a lifetime.

So, if you're not in your winter yet... let me remind you that it will be here faster than you think. So, whatever you would like to accomplish in your life, please do it quickly! Don't put off things too long. Life goes by quickly. Do what you can TODAY, as you can never be sure whether this is your winter or not. You have no promise that you will see all the seasons of your life... So…

LIVE FOR TODAY and say all the things that you want your loved ones to remember.. and hope that they appreciate and love you for all the things that you have done for them in all the years past.

"Life" is a GIFT to you, and the way you live your life is your gift to those who come after. Make it a fantastic one!

DID YOU KNOW...?

…that the letter "W" is the only letter in the alphabet with 3 syllables. (All others only have 1.)

…you can only see a rainbow if you have your back to the sun.

A popular magazine asked its readers, "What is the weirdest thing you've eaten for dinner in the name of saving time?" Here are a few of the responses:

- A sandwich made of Ranch dressing, fake bacon bits and a leftover deviled egg.
- Rice with Heinz 57 sauce.
- Defrosted peas and a piece of toast.
- A piece of beef jerky and a honey bun.
- Beer and a pudding cup.

RANDOM THOUGHTS …

I sometimes wonder what happened to the people who asked me for directions.

Surely not EVERYBODY was Kung Fu fighting???

Theiyr're — problem solved!

This sentence was created using Speech Wreck Ignition Soft Wear.

I remember the words my dear, sweet mom used to say to us kids every day, "What the heck is wrong with you?!"

There should be a calorie refund for things that didn't taste as good as you expected.

Don't dwell on your mistakes — that's what family is for.
